PRINCIPALS REPORT

PUBERTY NIGHT

A reminder to families to return their slips for the puberty night next week.

So far, there have been limited responses and unless more interest is shown the night will not be able to go ahead.

Also attached to this newsletter is a flyer for a puberty information session at Gateways which is being presented by Family Planning Victoria.

BVS VALUES: TEAMWORK    RESPECT    FUN    DIGNITY    SUPPORT
BVS STUDENTS AT THE GPAC - 2015 MUSIC AND MOVEMENT FESTIVAL

What an amazing experience the “Movers” (OH1, OH2, OS) and the “Playground Funkers” (S19, S20, S22) had at GPAC on Tuesday 4th August.

The many weeks of rehearsal paid off and the students performed like dance stars.

It was wonderful to see everyone work as a well-practised and prepared dance team.

The students were fine ambassadors for our school during the Festival and followed our school rules and values at all times. What a fantastic effort!

Thank you to everyone involved in supporting the event and to the parents and family members who came along to watch their children shine.
